The next Day the Cannon made a great Fire, both from the Camp and the Fort, and ſeveral Bombs were thrown, but the Succeſs was not known when theſe Letters came away. The German Horſe were to begin their March towards Pontremoli on the Twenty-ſixth Inſtant, in order to return to Milan, there being no more Forage to be found in thoſe Parts.

Vienna, April 2. N. S. About the latter end of the laſt Month his Imperial Majeſty, according to the Cuſtom of the Seaſon, took the diverſion of Hunting Wolves and Foxes, and ſhooting Pheaſants in the Prater, which was the firſt time that his Majeſty had given himſelf any relaxation from publick Buſineſs ſince his arrival here. Signior Victor Zani, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the Republick of Venice, made his Publick Entrance here on the Thirteith paſt, with an extraordinary Magnificence, and the next Day had his firſt publick Audience of the Emperor, and the Empreſſes Dowager. His Excellency, together with the Nuncio of the Pope, are to aſſiſt at the Coronation of the Emperor, as King of Hungary, at Presbourg. A Courier is arrived here, from Spain, with Diſpatches from the Empreſs Conſort, as is likewiſe Signior Erba, the Pope's Nuncio, in his way from hence to the Court of Poland.

Milan, April 2. N. S. The Engliſh and Dutch Plenipotentiaries, have now under their Conſideration, the Points in Difference between his Imperial Majeſty, and his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, and are drawing up their Sentence in relation to them. The Emperor not being ſatisfy'd with the Preparations made by the Viceroy of Naples for the Sieges of Porto Hercole, and the other Places belonging to Spain, upon the Coaſts of Tuſcany, has ſent Orders to Don Julio Viſconti, the Commiſſary General here, to go to Naples, to enquire into the Reaſons of the Delay in thoſe Preparations, and to let his Imperial Majeſty know if they were occaſion'd by any Fault or Neglect of the Viceroy. Signior Cuſani is arriv'd here from France, where he has lately reſided in the Quality of the Pope's Nuncio, and is to go hence in a few Days for Rome. A Courier went ſome few Days ago through this Place, being diſpatch'd from Turin by the Earl of Peterborough for England.

Berlin, April 9. N. S. General Fleming ſet out Yeſterday from this Place, in order to follow his Maſter King Auguſtus into Poland. Although the Succeſs of his Negotiations is not known, yet the frequent Conferences he has had with the Miniſters of this Court, have made the Suedes very uneaſy, and it is reported here, that Monſieur Frieſendorff, who has formerly reſided as the King of Sueden's Envoy at the Court of Hanover, is to come hither with ſome Commiſſion from the King his Maſter. Monſieur Weſtphael, who has for ſome time been Reſident here from King Auguſtus, has taken his leave of the King, and is to go to the Courts of Mecklenburg with the ſame Character. Four thouſand Muſcovites are already arriv'd about Kuſtrin, in order to return to Pomerania, and Sixteen thouſand more of the ſame Troops, are advanced as far as Petrikow in Poland, Prince Menzikoff being come as far as Elbing. His Czariſh Majeſty has requeſted of the King, that he may have his Head Quarters at Sweet, upon the Frontiers of the Sueditſh Pomerania, which is the Place where the late Margrave Philip had his Reſidence; and it is reported here, that the King has agreed to it. His Pruſſian Majeſty having wrote to the King of Denmark concerning the Inhabitants of the Dutchy of Mecklenburg, that they may have a Conſideration for the Charge they have been at in ſubſiſting the Daniſh Troops in that Country; the King of Denmark has return'd an Anſwer, that he is willing to pay what is juſtly due to them, and that he has nominated Commiſſaries to ſtate the Account.

Bruſſels, April 18. N. S. By Letters of the Fifteenth Inſtant, we have an Account of the ſituation of the Confederate as well as the French Troops in Artois. The former are encamped along the River Scarpe, with their Right at Dechey near Doway, and the Enemy having taken poſſeſſion of the Paſſes on the Senſette, the Night before the Allies intended to Poſt themſelves there, extend from Etrun to Monchipreux near Arras, having Marquiron in their Center; but very few of their Horſe being as yet come up, it is believ'd they would not be able to maintain themſelves in their preſent Camp, when the Confederate Forces ſhould be join'd upon the Twentieth. The Baron Heems the Emperor's Envoy to the States General, ſet out Yeſterday from hence for Gand, to ſignify to the States of Flanders, his Imperial Majeſty's Pleaſure concerning their Proportion of the Sums neceſſary for the ſubſiſting the Body of his Troops that are to ſerve on this ſide during the Campaign. The Troops of the French Houſhold, are expected on the Sixteenth at Bapaume.

Yarmouth, April 11. This Day came into our Road Her Majeſty's Ship the Pearl from the Coaſt of Holland, having ſeen the Fleet ſafe over, that ſail'd under his Convoy.
